MEMORANDUM FOR THE DCI

SUBJECT: Internal Showing of Two-Hour Telecast with Turncoat

Westinghouse Broadcasting (WTOG-TV, Channel 5, Washington, D. C.) has lent to the Agency for internal CIA use until Friday, 23 August 1963, the taped telecast of the two-hour interview of David Schoenbrun with the Turncoat Skinner, and with Allen W. Dulles and Senator Kenneth Keating. Westinghouse also has furnished the Agency with the audio tape, listing all questions and answers made in preparing the two-hour show; the audio tape runs about three hours. The latter tape will remain with Graphics.

Should any of the Deputies or others wish showings of the TV tape for groups of their people, please inform [REDACTED], Graphics, extension 7757, who has the tapes and who will process all requests.
